

KERALA DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION STRATEGIC COUNCIL (K-DISC)
(Government of Kerala)

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI) INVITED

for

“Commune – Work Near Home” Centers

Operating Partner–Led Model with Government-Backed Financing Support

The Kerala Development and Innovation Strategic Council (K-DISC) invites Expressions of Interest from entrepreneurs, private entities, start-ups, and institutions to establish and operate “Commune – Work Near Home” (WNH) centers across Kerala. As part of the Kerala Knowledge Economy Mission, these centers will provide high-quality co-working spaces in local communities—equipped with professional infrastructure and high-speed internet—to support freelancers, remote workers, and small businesses.

Key Highlights

- Operate under the “Commune – Work Near Home” label with K-DISC branding and ecosystem support.
- Access to Government-backed financing support for up to a significant portion of project cost, as detailed in the EoI.
- Opportunity to develop professionally managed, inclusive co-working centres in Tier-II, Tier-III towns and rural areas.
- Alignment with Kerala Knowledge Economy Mission targets for job creation and distributed work.

Who Can Apply?

- Individual entrepreneurs
- Registered firms / companies / LLPs
- Start-ups and incubated entities
- Trusts, societies and institutions
- Other eligible organizations as defined in the EoI document
